Offers In The Region Of £1,100,000

WITH NO ONWARD CHAIN!! Town and Country Oswestry offer this truly wonderful country residence in superb condition set within ten acres of adjoining flat farmland with various outbuildings and detached potential annexe. Enjoying a secluded and private location and ideal for those looking to enjoy the equestrian or outdoors lifestyle, the property has been well maintained with lots of original character whilst offering spacious family accommodation with three/four bedrooms and five reception rooms. The outbuildings comprise a single storey building ideal for conversion (subject to planning), a large agricultural outbuilding, open fronted pole barn, large livestock shed and dog kennels. The private driveway leads down to the property with the paddocks located either side. The gardens are another wonderful feature with a man made lake and extensive lawns. Located on the edge of Babbinswood, all amenities are within a short drive away along with pretty Whittington with its castle and great primary school. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all that this property offers.

Directions

From our Oswestry office proceed out of the town onto the Whittington Road. At the roundabout proceed straight over heading towards Whittington. On entering the village proceed along until reaching the T junction. Turn right and head towards Babbinswood. Pass through the village and head towards Queens head. The entrance to the property will be found on the left hand side after approximately 1/2 a mile.

About the Area

Situated in the small hamlet of Babbinswood and with the pretty village of Whittington just a mile away, the area is ideally situated for those wanting to be rural yet still close to road and rail links making the cities of Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham and London easily accessible. With a fantastic choice of both state and private schools locally including Oswestry School, Ellesmere College and Moreton Hall, it makes this the perfect location to raise a family. The traditional market town of Oswestry is just a few miles away which has all the necessary amenities along with a fantastic array of local independent retailers, a busy weekly market and a monthly farmers market.
