£395,000

Having undergone a program of sympathetic modernisation retaining much of the character of this beautiful four bedroom home. The home was originally two properties, one built approximately 1800 another approximately 1880 which have been combined to produce the stunning home which should be viewed to be fully appreciated. Boasting beautiful views to front, side and rear elevations. The property itself benefits from UPVC double glazing, gas central heating, solar panels with batteries and has internal accommodation which comprises an inviting through kitchen/breakfast room, a utility room with cloakroom WC off, a study, sitting/dining room with two stone fireplaces and sun room, enjoying beautiful views over the rear garden and the countryside beyond. The first-floor accommodation offers access to a large four piece family bathroom and four bedrooms, the principle of which enjoys en suite facilities. Externally the property can be approached through an automatic cast-iron gate, located to the side of the main residence which opens to ample gravel parking in front of a single garage which also houses a sauna and climbing/bouldering wall. The side garden is predominantly laid to lawn with shrub borders and sleeper raised vegetable gardens. The rear south-facing garden is of a generous size, with three distinct areas: a low maintenance large paved patio with seating area; a gravelled area with shrubs, fruit trees, gazebo and firepit; and finally through a central pergola leading to another lawn garden where the outside gym and large shed are located. This property should be viewed to be fully appreciated.
