DESCRIPTION

VIRTUAL TOUR AVAILABLE... This delightful Victorian mid-terrace has an abundance of charm and character, including many original features. The adaptable accommodation is versatile and ideal for family living. The property benefits from gas central heating, and the generous accommodation comprises an entrance vestibule with original Minton tiled flooring and a stained-glass door opening to an inviting reception hall including the beautiful Minton tiled flooring. The contemporary kitchen has an array of wall, base and drawer units, an island unit, and various integrated appliances. An open thoroughway leads to the dining area/conservatory and a utility room (located to the rear of the kitchen). Concluding the ground floor accommodation is a lovely lounge with an open fire with a feature Adam's style surround and a sitting room with an inset gas wood effect fire set within a lovely Welsh slate fireplace. The first-floor accommodation includes the principal bedroom with a dressing room off, a second double bedroom and a bathroom. The bathroom is installed with a modern three-piece suite comprising, a free-standing bath, a vanity unit with a countertop mounted wash hand basin and a low-level WC. The second-floor accommodation includes two further double bedrooms, a single bedroom and a shower room. Externally, to the front of the property is a small garden with shrubs, a brick boundary wall and a paved pathway to the entrance door. The rear courtyard is enclosed via a wall, predominately paved with York stone, established climbers and plants, gated access provides access to the rear alleyway and a timber-built outbuilding with power.

LOCATION

Halkyn Road lies within the prime residential location of Hoole, one of Chester's most sought-after suburbs and demand for the area is high. There is much to offer within the immediate locality from boutique shops to bars and award-winning restaurants. The City centre is within walking distance offering a wider range of shopping and leisure facilities. Hoole's character and charm originate from the vast amount of Victorian-style properties, most of which have been sympathetically upgraded and restored to provide a modern blend of tradition and style. Known as 'Notting Hoole'... The name says it all. For travel, the property is convenient for links to the national motorway network and walking distance of Chester Railway Station.

DIRECTIONS

Proceed out of Chester towards the Fountains roundabout and proceed straight on before taking the second turning following signs for Hoole Way. Take the first turning at the next roundabout, continuing along the A56 Hoole Way signposted M53/M56. Continue along Hoole Way through the next set of traffic lights over the Hoole Road Railway Bridge and at the bottom of the railway bridge take an immediate left hand turning onto Ermine Road. Take the first right onto Halkyn Road and proceed as the road bends to the left and the property will be observed on the left hand side.
