LOCATION

Farndon is a picturesque village just 9 miles from the centre of Chester and 6 miles from Wrexham, adjacent to the River Dee set in Cheshire and right on the Welsh border. It has many local amenities including 3 public houses, shops, a chemist, hairdressers, a post office, a doctors surgery and a nursery which all encourage a strong village community. The local village primary school has excellent results and feeds into the Bishop Heber High School which is particularly well known for its high academic achievements, these are just two of many schools within this area.
