Maes Y Parc,, Halton, Chirk

£260,000

Originally constructed in 1875 this former Methodist chapel offers large Light, versatile accommodation, with planning permission granted for the property to be converted into two dwellings, or alternatively offering the potential conversion to many different uses (subject to the relevant planning consent). With a rural outlook to the rear the property is ideally situated for easy access to Chirk, Wrexham, Oswestry and just a 30 minute drive from Chester. In brief the accommodation comprises the large former chapel with folding timber doors opening to another large room formally used as an activity room and then from the rear entrance doors off open to storage room kitchen, toilet WC , a disabled toilet/baby changing room and two ground floor offices. Stairs off the rear entrance hall rise to first floor accommodation with a large skylight off the landing and doors opening to meeting rooms, ladies and gentlemen toilets and an office with the storage space.
