Directions

From our Willow Street office proceed out of town and head towards Shrewsbury on the A5. Proceed for approximately 5 miles before turning left onto the B4397 signposted Ruyton Xi Towns. Proceed for about two miles into the village and turn left onto School Road. Follow the road along leaving the village. After a short drive take a right turning onto Stanwardine Lane. Follow this lane along passing Riverside Cabins on the right hand side. After approximately 100 metres the lodge will be found on the right hand side identified by our for sale board.

Overview

The Lodge really is a part of the local history and was a former lodge house that has been lovingly updated and extended by the present owners. Nestling on the edge of the pretty hamlet of Wykey, the property borders the river Perry and comes with fishing rights. The current owners have spent a lot of time to improve the property with the addition of a stunning garden room to the front of the home that both gives extensive living space but also connects the house with the gardens and the beautiful unspoilt scenery. The wooded backdrop is another great feature of this property with an abundance of wildlife and nature with changing seasons bringing life and colour all year round. The gardens are also a notable feature having been landscaped to create a very versatile space ideal for both families and those keen gardeners. There are areas to relax with a large decked patio and hot tub along with more wild gardens to enjoy the nature and native planting.

Location

The hamlet of Wykey offers a truly rural backdrop yet is still very conveniently located for accessing towns such as Shrewsbury and Oswestry. Ruyton Xi Towns is just a five minute drive away and offers local school, public house and village shop. The popular and prestigious Packwood Haugh and Corbett schools are also within easy reach. For those wanting to explore the outdoors, the situation of the cottage is perfect with fantastic walks and countryside literally on the doorstep.
