DESCRIPTION

Situated in an enviable elevated position with beautiful far-reaching views and just a short walk from the centre of this popular village situated to the south of Wrexham, this detached, versatile home—with potentially up to five bedrooms, should it be required—enjoys the benefits of gas central heating and UPVC double glazing. The internal accommodation has wall and roof insulation, which was fitted by the gas board and comprises an inviting, spacious, parquet-floored entrance hall; a living room with double aspect and inglenook fireplace; a kitchen/breakfast room fitted with a range of gloss white contemporary units with a rear hall/utility room off; a music room and a dining room, both of which could be utilised as bedrooms; and a beautiful white four-piece bathroom suite completing the ground floor accommodation. The first-floor landing offers access to a cloakroom WC and to three further bedrooms, the principal of which is a generous size with a range of mirror-fronted fitted wardrobes. Externally, the property is approached over a patterned concrete driveway offering ample off-road parking positioned to the front of a double garage. Paved steps with a railing rise to the left-hand side of the property to a large patio/terrace, which is a lovely place to sit and enjoy the views. The rear garden itself is beautifully presented with stone walls, attractively lawned and well-stocked with a variety of colourful shrubs, with a timber shed and greenhouse positioned to the rear left-hand side. All paving around the property, patio and steps leading up from the drive are all Indian stone

LOCATION

Cefn Mawr is a vibrant and well-connected village situated in the heart of the beautiful Dee Valley, just a short drive from Wrexham, Oswestry, Llangollen, and the stunning Pontcysyllte Aqueduct—a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The area offers a great mix of local amenities including shops, cafes, pubs, schools, and medical services, making it ideal for families and professionals alike. With scenic countryside and river walks, excellent transport links, and a strong sense of community, Cefn Mawr provides the perfect balance of rural charm and everyday convenience.

EXTERNALLY

The property is approached over patterned concrete off-road parking with an inset compass feature and allows access to the garage. Paved steps with a railing rise to the property and front patio area. All paving around the property, patio and steps leading up from the drive are all Indian stone. This generously proportioned front patio area, paved with railings matching those on the steps, is an ideal place to sit and enjoy those views. Side access can be gained to the rear garden from either side of the property, and some steps to the right-hand side rise to a garden which is predominantly laid to lawn and runs down the right-hand side of the property. Directly outside the external door from the rear hall/utility is a covered area—ideal for kicking off shoes or hanging washing on a wet day. The rear garden itself is beautifully presented with steps rising to the first tier, which is laid to lawn with colourful, well-stocked borders, with a slightly higher tier to the rear again lawned and shrubbed with an ornamental pond. Throughout the rear garden are stone retaining walls, external lighting, and water supply, and to the left-hand side rear of the garden is a timber shed and greenhouse. There is a gate at the side of the property which gives access to a path leading to the post office, doctor's surgery and other shops.

GARAGE

21'4 x 18'3

With power and light, hot and cold running water, along with an inspection pit, a Belfast sink and accessed through two single up-and-over doors. Separate consumer unit.
