DIRECTIONS FROM WREXHAM

Leave Wrexham via the A541 Mold Road and continue for approximately 8 miles, passing through Caergwrle and Cefn-y-Bedd. After entering Pontblyddyn, turn left just before the BP petrol station onto the A5104 Corwen Road. Continue uphill through Pontybodkin, then take the left turn about a mile further on, signposted for Llanfynydd. Follow this road for around 2 miles into Llanfynydd and turn right at the crossroads. Continue up the hill for about a mile and take the left turn onto a minor lane. After another mile, turn right opposite the stone property named Cae Ap Edward. Proceed uphill, and the entrance to Mount Cottage will be on the right-hand side.

LOCATION

The property enjoys an elevated position in open countryside along a private no-through lane, about a mile above the villages of Ffrith and Llanfynydd, and equidistant from Mold and Wrexham (both approx. 8 miles). Despite its secluded location, it offers convenient access to larger towns including Chester (15 miles) and Wrexham. Nearby villages such as Treuddyn and Cefn Y Bedd offer local primary schools, with respected secondary schools available in Mold and at Castell Alun High School in Hope.
