DESCRIPTION

This home comprises an entrance hall with cloakroom WC, a spacious living room with bay window and open access to the dining room, which in turn leads to an orangery. The kitchen is well-equipped with light oak-style units and integrated appliances, and the utility room provides internal access to the garage. Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to a family bathroom and three bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with ensuite shower room. Externally, the home enjoys a larger-than-average frontage with off-road parking, garage access, and a generously sized rear garden with mature borders and outbuildings.

LOCATION

Located in the desirable village of Penyffordd, this home combines rural charm with excellent transport links to nearby towns and cities, making it a fantastic choice for families seeking a balance between peaceful village life and accessibility to urban conveniences.

DIRECTIONS

ENTRANCE HALL

Access is via an opaque UPVC double-glazed door, opening into the entrance hall. This space includes a radiator, stairs rising to the first-floor accommodation with a banister and spindle balustrade, and a useful under-stairs storage cupboard. A partially glazed door leads to the kitchen, while additional doors open to the living room and the cloakroom WC.

CLOAKROOM WC

Fitted with a low-level WC and pedestal wash hand basin, the cloakroom also includes partially tiled walls, a radiator, and a window facing the front elevation.

LIVING ROOM

17'4 x 10'2

A spacious reception room with a bay window to the front elevation, a radiator, and a living flame gas fire with a marble hearth and Adam-style surround. An open archway leads through to the dining room.

DINING ROOM
