DESCRIPTION

Occupying a fan-shaped plot with a wide frontage, this three-bedroom semi-detached property offers excellent potential and is ideally positioned in a sought-after residential area. A charming farmhouse-style gate opens onto ample off-road parking, with the approach flanked by well-stocked gravel and shrub gardens. Although requiring a degree of modernisation, the home benefits from UPVC double glazing and gas central heating throughout.

LOCATION

Hoole, one of Chester's most sought-after suburbs and demand for the area is high. There is much to offer within the immediate locality from boutique shops to bars and award-winning restaurants. The City centre is within walking distance offering a wider range of shopping and leisure facilities. Hoole's character and charm originate from the vast amount of Victorian-style properties, most of which have been sympathetically upgraded and restored to provide a modern blend of tradition and style. Known as 'Notting Hoole'... The name says it all. For travel, the property is convenient for links to the national motorway network and walking distance of Chester Railway Station.
