Offers In The Region Of £580,000

A 9 ACRE FORMER SMALLHOLDING WITH A SUBSTANTIAL DETACHED HOUSE AND OUTBUILDINGS. Situated on the outskirts of Porth-Y-Waen, near Oswestry, this delightful property offers a perfect blend of comfort and space for family living. This property would benefit from a scheme of improvement and it offers four well-proportioned bedrooms and three reception rooms, providing ample space for relaxation and entertaining. These versatile areas can be tailored to suit your lifestyle, whether you envision a cosy family lounge or a formal dining room for hosting gatherings. With 9 acres of land surrounding the property along with stables and a large outbuilding currently used as a garage, this property is ideally suited to those who wish to create a self sufficient smallholding or those who enjoy equestrian pursuits. This detached home in Porth-Y-Waen presents an excellent opportunity for families or individuals looking for a spacious and inviting home in a convenient yet rural location.

Directions

From the crossroads at the WHITE LION FOLLOW the A495 (Lake VYRNWY)
Continue over a disused railway line and then past the Lime Kiln Inn on the right.
There are then some cream coloured cottages and a converted chapel on the left and VOWNOG VIEW is the next property set well back on the left about 50 yards before the bend – the entrance is next to a 40-m.p.h. sign.

The Land

The land surrounds the property on all sides protecting the property and outlook. There are 9 acres in total separated into 6 well hedged/fenced paddocks. Two recently built bridges over the stream divides the upper and lower fields. One bridge is ideal for the tractor/vehicles and the other for foot traffic/pedestrian use. The land was traditionally used for grazing sheep and hay making, 14 round hay bales were taken off the top fields in the summer of 2025. Two of the fields sit roadside and could have potential for residential development subject to obtaining the necessary planning consent.
