Directions

From Oswestry take the A483 towards Welshpool. After approximately four miles at the Llynclys crossroads, turn right onto the A495 towards Llansantffraid and Llanfyllin. Follow the A495 through Llansantffraid and Llanfechain and turn onto the A490 towards Llanfyllin. Proceed through the town and continue past the turning for Lake Vyrnwy on the left. Proceed over a hump backed bridge and turn first left. Proceed along the lane for approximately 2.9 miles where a farm gate and bungalow will be seen on the left. Go through the gate and follow the lane down to the property. If using what three words they are BROACHED.RAIL.KEEP.

Overview

Rhos Fawr is a fantastic detached equestrian smallholding with outstanding views across the Welsh hills, superb outriding directly from the property along quiet lanes and bridleways, plus the Rainbow Trails located just thirty minutes away. The house itself has four bedrooms, two good sized reception rooms, a large kitchen area, study, utility/cold room, family bathroom and en suite facilities. There is also a very useful attic space, solar panels, and lots of original features throughout the property such as beamed ceilings, inglenook fireplaces and quarry tiled flooring. To the outside, the property offers every convenience for equestrian living with an extensive arrangement of stone barns, stabling, tack rooms and storage. Further to this are two purpose built maneges and an electric horse walker. Situated in just over nine acres of paddocks and grounds, the facilities on offer represent a perfect opportunity for those wanting to keep horses or to develop the property and barns to their own requirements.

Location

The property is located in a tucked away position on the outskirts of Llanfyllin with all everyday amenities just a short drive away. Llanfyllin offers a school, various small local shops and cafes along with public houses and good transport links. Larger towns such as Oswestry, Welshpool and Shrewsbury are all easily reached, whilst road networks link the area to the coast and transport links such as Liverpool and Manchester airports. The location means that the property is perfectly suited for outdoor pursuits such as riding, with quiet country lanes and fantastic scenery.

The Yard

The yard area offers plenty of parking and turning space and gives access to both sets of barns and outbuildings as well as leading down to the horse walker and access for the paddocks and manege facilities.

Farm Buildings

The farm buildings offer a great opportunity for those wanting to potentially create further living accommodation (subject to planning) or equine use, as is currently the purpose, with good sized stabling, tack room and store rooms.

Grade II* Listed Barn

The timber cruck framed building is steeped in history and was formerly used as accommodation before being replaced by the current farmhouse when it was built later on. The barn is split into various sections. There is a log store at the top side (4.74m x 4.25m). Below this there is an old shippon (6.12m x 3.96m) and then a workshop (6.30m x 3.70m with a small store room to the rear. Below this there is a hayloft (6.12m x 4.37m) and below this there is a hay store (6.12m x 3.63m). To the far end there is further hay storage with a door leading out to the side (5.71m x 7.30m). To the outside is a shed housing the generator.

Adjoining Stables and Store 29'0" x 17'1" (8.85m x 5.22m)

The purpose-built steel outbuilding has a large doorway onto the yard and is split into two sections. One half is used as a horse rug storage room, farrier's facility and has solarium lights for the horses. The other half is a large fourth stable which looks out onto the main yard. To the bottom side of this building there is a walled muck heap and concrete hard standing.

Adjacent Stone Barns and Stables

The adjacent barns are also split into separate useful areas. At the top end there is the Old Granary with double timber doors (4.58m x 2.26m) with a room above accessed from steps at the side. There is an adjoining double height barn with a door to the front. (4.79m x 4.54m). Next to this is a storage area with a stone floor (4.37m x 3.50m).

Stables

There are three good sized stables and spacious tack room. The top stable is boarded out and measures 4.43m x 3.13m and has a stable door onto the yard. The second stable measures 4.58m x 4.06m and is boarded out and has a stable door onto the yard. There is an adapted tack room (5.52m x 3.82m) with metal reinforcing to the door, boarded walls, power and lighting and controls for the electric fencing and the horse walker. The third stable measures 5.76m x 3.40m and is boarded out and has a stable door onto the yard.

Horse Walker

There is also a four horse Claydon circular electric walker installed at the property with concrete hard standing and entrance.

Manege 131'2" x 65'7" (40.00m x 20.00m)

The purpose built manege/arena was designed by the renowned Charles Britton and is fully enclosed by fencing. It has training mirrors in place and a rubber/carpet tiled surface.

Second Manege 82'0" x 49'2" (25.00m x 15.00m)

The second manege/arena is accessed from a recently installed stone walkway leading up to the top of the paddocks. It is a newer addition and is perfect for lunging, turnout and backing having an Equipro surface and fenced perimeter.

Additional Photo

The Paddocks

The paddocks have been very well maintained and cared for by the current owners. Currently split into six paddocks with mains-powered electric fencing in place producing organic hay in the Summer months along with all year round grazing. The paddocks are fully fenced with a purpose made track that runs along one side of the boundary, leading down to the lower arena. The existing track lends itself well to the development of a track livery system at a future date. It is currently used as a grass gallop in summer months. There is also a section of river located behind the lower arena and an area that has been left to rewilding.
