Directions

From our Oswestry office follow the one way system out of town and join the A5. Follow the signs for Llangollen. On entering the town follow the road out towards Corwen for approximately 6 miles. On entering the hamlet of Llidiart Y Parc turn right signposted Carrog. Follow the road down and over the bridge and bear to the left. Proceed along for approximately 750 metres and take the second turning on the left back on yourself just opposite the turning for the school. Follow this lane down where the property will be found at the far end of the lane, it is the last property on the right. what3words ///cable.sundial.compound

Overview

This imposing, elegant property, built in 1888 offers fantastic potential for the new owners to create a haven in a beautiful rural location. With unspoilt views, river access with fishing rights and a private setting, Riverdale offers a space to bring all the family together with annexe potential, plenty of space for those looking to work from home or utilise the properties business potential and so much more. Despite being a very small village, Carrog offers so much by way of community facilities with a Primary school (with both Welsh and English stream), a church with regular services and social activities for young and old. There is a post office facility at the village hall twice a week a train station which links the village by steam train to the nearby town of Llangollen and has many wonderful walks and great routes for cycling straight from the doorstep. The town of Corwen to the North and Llangollen to the South are both no more than 15 minutes away by car and means the property is ideally located for access to everyday facilities such as supermarkets, doctors surgeries and more. The award winning public House, The Grouse is a 5 minute walk from Riverdale and is warm, welcoming and serves local ales and food.

Location

The property sits in a private 'tucked away' position with stunning rolling countryside in all directions. The gardens enjoy lots of privacy and the house has absolutely breath taking uninterrupted views over the surrounding Dee Valley scenery.
