DESCRIPTION

Built in 1856, this beautifully maintained Victorian property is rich in character and architectural detail. Situated in a prime Chester location, it offers ample off-road parking, six spacious bedrooms all with ensuite facilities, with the potential for up to 10 bedrooms and 11 bathrooms—ideal for business use or multi-generational living, particularly on the second floor. Includes a ground floor ensuite auxiliary room, previously a bedroom and now used for business, with access to the rear garden and three additional outbuildings. Briefly, the property comprises a stunning inner hall, downstairs WC, a living room with a cast-iron fire with marble surround, making a beautiful centre piece, a tastefully designed dining room and a study room. The first floor provides access to three of the bedrooms, all generously sized and with ensuites, and a laundry room. On the second floor, a further three bedrooms with ensuite facilities. The basement offers potential for two additional rooms that can be utilised as bedrooms with ensuite facilities. Furthermore, there is a basement patio with three unique Victorian arches that extend underneath the garden; we highly recommend viewing this property to truly appreciate the scale and potential. Additional photos upon request.
