DESCRIPTION

We are pleased to present this beautiful and charming character cottage build in the 19th century that has been both modernised and extended. Benefiting from UPVC double glazing and oil central heating. The property itself comprises a delightful living room with exposed beams and a cast-iron log burner. The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall, base and drawer units, a Belfast sink and set within an exposed brick flue is a Rayburn stove; a utility room features the same unit as those in the kitchen. The First-floor landing offers access to both bedrooms and a bathroom fitted with a white three-piece suite.

LOCATION

The property is situated within the heart of Mickle Trafford, approximately four miles from Chester city centre. The village has a shop, post office and a popular primary school. Chester is a thriving and historic county town offering an excellent range of retail, leisure, and commercial services. These include a burgeoning restaurant and café scene and the Story House theatre. The city offers a range of popular state and independent schools (at both primary and secondary levels) including Kings and Queens in the city centre, and Abbey Gate College in Saughton (6.5 miles). Mickle Trafford is very well placed for the commuter with easy access to the motorway network linking Manchester and Liverpool. There is a regular direct rail service to London Euston from Chester station (from about 2 hours). The A55 trunk road offers direct access to the North Wales coast and the extensive and varied leisure opportunities in the region.

DIRECTIONS

Head north on Lower Bridge Street toward Grosvenor Street (A5268), then turn right onto Pepper Street and continue following the A5268; turn right again onto Foregate Street and stay on the A5268, continuing straight onto St Oswalds Way, then at the roundabout take the second exit onto Hoole Way (A56), continue to Hoole Roundabout and take the second exit onto Warrington Road (A56), and finally, at Hoole Island Junction, take the second exit to remain on the A56 and the property will be on the right.
