DESCRIPTION

A well-proportioned three-bedroom home offering spacious accommodation across three floors, with attractive gardens, garage, and scenic outdoor space. The property features a welcoming living room with a gas fire and open access to a separate dining room and breakfast room. The kitchen is fitted with a range of oak-style units, integrated double oven, and space for appliances. A rear hall leads to a modern ground floor shower room and provides access to the rear courtyard. Upstairs, the first floor comprises two bedrooms, a family bathroom with a corner bath, and access to a loft bedroom on the second floor featuring a vaulted ceiling and elevated front-facing window. Externally, the home benefits from a double pre-fabricated garage. Gardens surround the property with mature planting, a greenhouse, outbuildings, and a shed. A rear footpath and iron gates offer access to a peaceful garden that slopes down toward the River Alyn. Ideal for buyers seeking character, space, and a semi-rural setting within easy reach of Wrexham town centre.

LOCATION

Nestled at the foot of Hope Mountain, the historic village of Caergwrle offers a charming blend of rural beauty and everyday convenience. Surrounded by rolling countryside, this desirable village is known for its strong community spirit, scenic walking routes, and the iconic Caergwrle Castle ruins. Caergwrle benefits from a range of local amenities including shops, cafes, a post office, pub, and primary school, making it ideal for families and those seeking a quieter pace of life. The nearby village of Hope offers additional facilities, including a highly regarded secondary school. Excellent transport links are available, with Caergwrle railway station providing direct connections to Wrexham and Bidston (for Liverpool), while the A483 and A55 are easily accessible for commuting to Chester, Mold, and beyond. With its blend of village charm, access to open countryside, and excellent connectivity, Caergwrle is a sought-after location for both families and professionals alike.
