DESCRIPTION

Ideally located on the fringes of the popular village of Coedpoeth, the property offers convenient access to Wrexham, local motorway networks, and a wide range of amenities. This terraced home, which is in need of modernisation, benefits from gas central heating and a combination of timber-framed and UPVC double glazing. The internal accommodation comprises a vestibule, entrance hall, dining room with glazed double doors opening into the living room, kitchen, and a first-floor landing leading to a generously sized bathroom, two bedrooms, and a box room. Externally, the front features a gravel forecourt (with potential for off-road parking, subject to permissions), while the rear garden is low-maintenance, brick-blocked, and enjoys a sunny south-facing aspect.

LOCATION

Coedpoeth is a thriving village situated just a few miles west of Wrexham, offering a strong sense of community and a wide range of local amenities. The village provides shops, cafés, pubs, a library, primary schools, and recreational facilities, making it an ideal place for families and professionals alike. Surrounded by beautiful countryside, Coedpoeth offers easy access to walking trails and outdoor pursuits, while excellent transport links connect quickly to Wrexham, Chester, and the wider road network.

VESTIBULE

The property is entered via an opaque UPVC double-glazed door, leading into a quarry-tiled vestibule. A glazed internal door opens into the main entrance hall.
