DESCRIPTION

The property is a semi-detached home located within a popular village with access to Wrexham, Chester, local motorway networks, and a range of everyday amenities. The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, a kitchen/dining room with adjoining utility room, and a dual-aspect living room with French doors opening to the rear garden. To the first floor there are four bedrooms and a shower room. Externally, the property has a lawned garden to the front with pathway access and gated side entry, while the rear garden is designed for low maintenance with gravel, paved pathways, and a raised patio area. The property also benefits from UPVC double glazing and gas central heating.

LOCATION

Sixth Avenue is a residential street located within the village of Llay in the Wrexham County Borough area of North Wales. The village offers a range of local amenities including shops, schools, and community facilities, and lies close to surrounding villages such as Gresford and Gwersyllt. The area also benefits from road links providing access to the nearby towns and cities of Wrexham and Chester.

ENTRANCE HALL

7'3" x 3'3"

An opaque UPVC double-glazed door opens onto ceramic tiled flooring, with stairs rising to the first-floor accommodation. A light oak veneer door opens into the living room, with an open throughway leading to the kitchen.

KITCHEN/DINING ROOM

16'1" x 9'5"

With a continuation of the ceramic tiled flooring, this kitchen features two radiators, a window facing the front elevation, and two windows facing the rear elevation. There is an understairs storage cupboard, a meter cupboard, and a partially glazed door opening into the utility room. The kitchen area is fitted with a range of light grey wood-grain effect shaker-style wall and base units, complemented by stainless steel handles and work surface space housing a ceramic one-and-a-half bowl sink unit with mixer tap and tiled splashback. There is space for a range cooker with extractor hood above, along with space and plumbing for a dishwasher.

UTILITY ROOM

7'1" x 5'4"

Having ceramic tiled flooring and housing the gas combination boiler, the utility room provides space and plumbing for a stacked washing machine and dryer. A UPVC double-glazed door opens to the rear garden.

LIVING ROOM

16'7" x 10'9"

A double-aspect room with a window to the front elevation with a radiator below, along with UPVC double-glazed French doors opening to the rear garden. The room features wood-grain effect laminate flooring and a cast-iron multi-fuel burner set on a granite hearth with an oak mantel.
