1 Clive Place Severn Road, Welshpool, SY21 7AN

£695,000

This impressive five-bedroom detached Grade II listed home in Welshpool beautifully combines period charm with modern living, arranged over three spacious floors. The property features two en-suite bedrooms, along with a self-contained annex with its own en-suite—ideal for extended family, guests, or potential independent living.

Rich in character, the home showcases a wealth of original features, including a striking Georgian staircase, exposed beams, pitch pine doors, and an elegant feature fireplace. The generous room proportions throughout create a wonderful sense of space and versatility, perfectly suited to both relaxed family living and entertaining on a larger scale.

Outside, the property enjoys a large rear garden and a substantial driveway, with additional parking available to the rear.

What truly sets this home apart is its exceptional location. Set well back from the road, the property offers a high degree of privacy while remaining incredibly convenient. It sits adjacent to a charming small park and the Montgomery Canal, providing a peaceful and picturesque outlook. Despite its tranquil setting, the home is just a five-minute walk from the railway station, offering a direct line to Birmingham and the airport, while the bus station, museum, and library are only a couple of minutes away.

Three major supermarkets are also within easy reach.

For outdoor enthusiasts, the property is uniquely positioned along three renowned long-distance walking routes: the Severn Way, Glyndwr's Way, and Offa's Dyke, making it an ideal base for exploring the surrounding countryside.

Blending historic elegance with modern comfort and an enviable location, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a truly special home in the heart of Welshpool.
