DESCRIPTION

This 1930s period home is situated within one of Chester's most sought-after suburbs; this semi-detached house is predominantly double glazed and benefits from gas central heating. The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, a living room with bay window to the front elevation, an extended dining/sitting room and extended kitchen. To the first floor, there are three bedrooms, a bathroom and separate WC. Externally, there is a small front garden with paved pathways and a driveway leading alongside the property to the garage and rear garden. The rear garden enjoys a lovely south-westerly-facing orientation and is predominantly laid to lawn, with a variety of established plants, shrubs and trees. With its prime location and lovely features, this property is a must-see for anyone looking to settle in Chester.

LOCATION

Lincoln Drive is situated within the popular residential area of Newton, to the north of Chester city centre. The property is conveniently positioned for a range of local amenities, including shops, cafés and everyday services at Kingsway, while excellent nearby schooling includes Upton-by-Chester High School and local primary schools. There are regular bus services close by, with Chester railway station approximately 1.1 miles away, providing excellent links to Liverpool, Manchester and beyond. Chester city centre is also readily accessible, offering an extensive range of shopping, dining, leisure and cultural facilities.
