DESCRIPTION

This charming home is not just a residence; it is a lifestyle choice, combining the beauty of Victorian architecture with the convenience of modern living. The accommodation is arranged over three floors having the advantage of UPVC windows and central heating. Entering through the front door, you are welcomed into the entrance hall, where stairs rise to the first floor and a door leads into the cosy living room, featuring an exposed brick ornamental fireplace, the lounge flows openly into the kitchen/diner. The quarry tiled flooring continues into the kitchen/dining room. The kitchen is fitted with a number of units, with space for appliances and a door providing access to the rear courtyard. To the first floor, the landing provides access to two bedrooms and a modern three-piece shower room. Further stairs rise to a loft space offering versatile options, whether you envision it as a home office, a playroom, or simply extra storage. Externally, the rear of the property is a real highlight, featuring a low-maintenance courtyard providing a lovely outdoor space, perfect for enjoying a morning coffee or hosting summer gatherings, leading onto a paved terrace positioned directly alongside the canal. Steps descend to a composite decked platform, providing the rare benefit of direct access to the Shropshire Union Canal, offering a serene backdrop for leisurely walks or cycling.

LOCATION

Situated within the Garden Quarter a convenient and well-connected area of Chester, the property is within easy reach of a wide range of local amenities, including shops, cafés and everyday services, while Chester city centre offers an excellent selection of restaurants, bars, leisure facilities and retail outlets and access to new entertainment developments including Storyhouse, Picturehouse and the new market. The University of Chester is also nearby, making the location ideal for a variety of buyers. Excellent transport links are available via regular bus services, nearby Bache and Chester railway stations, and easy access to the A55, M53 and M56. The property also enjoys access to the Shropshire Union Canal, offering picturesque walks and outdoor leisure opportunities.
